tion pulled much the better stroke and won handily. The sirens and whistles of the war vessels were vigorously operated during this race in encouragement of the struggling crews.

The senior cutter race set the crowd wild. Getting an even start and pulling a 40 stroke the two cutters made for the turning buoy, followed by a procession of launches. The boats turned the mark at precisely the same moment and maintained their respective positions almost to end. Just at the finish the Marblehead crew sprang and finished half a length ahead.

PLEASED THE CROWD.

The exhibitions in front of the grand stand during the afternoon were highly entertaining. The life saving crew was out for an hour and went through the interesting capsize feat. To many this feature was new and the work of the men was regarded as little short of wonderful. A submarine diving exhibition was also given, one of the divers being deprived of air for a period of four minutes.

EVENTS ON LAND.

The dry test, the second event of the firemen's tournament, was run on upper Commercial street. The Vancouver team did not participate. The Astoria team ran first and finished in 32.5 seconds. Oregon City followed and made the distance in 33.5. The local team has won both first prizes in the two events thus far run.

In the 440-yard run Heffner won from Curtis of Astoria. In the mile run Will Johnson finished first, Martin Knutsen second and W. C. Curtis third.

THE EVENING RECEPTION.

"Beauty enthroned amid beauty" would be perhaps the correct appellation for use in describing Queen Frances at the reception last night, as seated on the royal throne in a spacious parlor lavishly decorated with roses, carnations and ivy, she graciously accorded her subjects of either sex a levee descending, for the nonce, from the ordinary stilted form of royalty to a democratic handshake with everyone as the long array of guests passed before her, each being in turn presented.

The affair, which was given by Mrs. Wilkinson, aunt of Queen Frances, was a public reception, and lasted from 8 to 12, the handsome residence of the hostess being crowded from the opening the closing hour.

One easily discerned the house from the tasteful manner in which Japanese lanterns had been strung about the building and grounds, a crown of the lanterns particularly emphasizing the abode of royalty. Just off the main entrance an orchestra discoursed delightful music, while on the other side a group of ladies served delicious punch and wafers, the function being duplicated in one of the rear rooms.

Just inside of the main parlor stood the hostess receiving her guests, who then met the queen after which they chatted in groups or wandered through other rooms, giving place to fresh arrivals.

Mrs. Wilkinson was assisted during the evening by Mesdames George, Fulton, Pruel, Stokes, Thine, Hanston, Lounsbury, West, Geo. C. Flavel, Schimpff, and Miss Lionberger.

During the afternoon a most pleasing social event took place in the shape of all the officers of Fort Stevens calling in a body in full dress uniform to pay their respects to Queen Frances.

PROGRAM TODAY.

10:15. Cutter race. U. S. S. Alert.

OVER 600 LIVES LOST.

Full particulars were recently received from the Samoan islands in regard to the terrible hurricane which visited those islands and in which over 600 lives were lost. Such a loss is appalling, but after all is not to be compared with the number of persons who have lost their lives from indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation and other stomach troubles. The number has, however, been considerably reduced since the introduction of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, 50 years ago, because it positively cures all such ailments. Your life and health are too precious to experiment with, therefore try this famous remedy first of all and be cured at once. It won't disappoint you. The genuine has our private stamp over the neck of the bottle.
